#NEVER AGAIN IS NOW
by Marleen Wallingford, Portland JACL President

We have just completed the 90th year of the founding of our organization, the Portland Chapter of the JACL. We owe a huge debt of gratitude to our Issei and Nisei pioneers who struggled to establish themselves in this land whose customs and language that were so different.

The United States in the early twentieth century was not a welcoming place for the Japanese. The United States had passed the Chinese Exclusion Act in 1882 so there was already strong anti-Asian sentiment. The Pacific Northwest was home to the largest KKK chapter west of the Mississippi established after Reconstruction. Their political influence fueled the passage of the Alien Land Law which was primarily directed at Japanese farmers which stated that a person ineligible for citizenship could not own land. The KKK was also able to successfully pass a measure that imposed immigration quotas, set at three percent of the total population of the foreign-born of each nationality in the United States as recorded in the 1910.

The Japanese and Japanese Americans faced the most blatant civil rights abuse in 1942 when an executive order, 9066 was signed into law. We were so grateful for the support of individuals like Reverend Sherman Burgoyne who at great personal sacrifice stood up for his Japanese American neighbors in Hood River. The Quakers helped the Nisei find schools and jobs outside of camp.

We, the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of immigrants are well established in American life. We are fluent English speakers. We are educated. It is now our turn to reach out and support our new immigrants. We believe the strength of our country is rooted in the wonderful diversity of its people.

Immigration policy and, specifically, illegal immigration to the United States was a signature issue of Donald Trump's presidential campaign. He promised to build a wall and has also expressed support for a variety of limits on legal immigration and guest-worker visas.

As president, Trump imposed a travel ban to prohibit issuing visas to citizens of seven largely-Muslim countries. He has attempted to end the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program, but a legal injunction has allowed the policy to continue. He imposed a "zero tolerance" policy to arrest all illegal immigrants at the border, which resulted in separating children from their families.

He has supported the RAISE Act legislation that seeks to reduce levels of legal immigration to the United States by 50% by halving the number of green cards issued. The bill would also impose a cap of 50,000 refugee admissions a year and would end the visa diversity lottery

Our president has made claims like, “the Mexican government is forcing their most unwanted people into the United States. They are, in many cases, criminals, drug dealers, and rapists.” Even though more than 75 years have passed, this rhetoric is so reminiscent of the inflammatory language that the media blasted to the public about our great grandparents, grandparents and parents. We strongly condemn this xenophobia. Immigrants are not the enemy. These anti-immigration measures have caused unnecessary fear and anxiety fueled by an undercurrent of suspicion and hatred of the other. We must have compassionate and equitable immigration policies and reform. We cannot allow our immigrant and refugee neighbors to be treated like the enemy. #NeverAgain is now.

The grand opening of A’misas Chiu’s touching watercolors of five generations of her family was on First Thursday, December 6 at ONLC. A’misas is a Yonsei raised in Torrence, California and describes herself as an artist, zinester and community organizer. She took family photographs and reinterpreted the image through the painting. More information on her process can be obtained from Ms. Chiu’s pamphlet: mirror images/mere images: (re)membering the generations through family photographs. The exhibit will be showing at ONLC through February 3, 2019.
Akemashite Omedeto Gozaimasu!
by Sharon Takehashi, President, Japanese Ancestral Society

The Japanese Ancestral Society of Portland will be celebrating the New Year on Sunday, February 10, 2019 at Sayler’s Country Kitchen at 4:00 with a board meeting, followed by the general meeting at 4:30 and dinner at 5 p.m.

The staff allows us to order individually off the menu and that is a real plus. Their menu is found online at their website saylers.com.

You are all welcome to join us for this event. RSVPs may be emailed to:

Sharon: stakahashi509@gmail.com, cell 503.330.1935
Gordy: ghkondo@gmail.com
Sho: shodozono@gmail.com

The deadline for RSVPs is February 4. Please join us for a good meal and lots of fun.

Let’s not be boorish but enthusiastic “boars” in the coming year. 2019 is the Year of the Boar and the animal’s appreciation of food and playful manner bring smiles to everyone.

For folk born under the sign of the boar, you are graced with tolerance, optimism, kindness and honesty.

On the other hand, the boar is described as self indulgent and impatient, thus having difficulty communicating and forgiving.

All of us need to keep on the good side of the boar.

Thank you to my holiday elves this year. They were Ken and Bea Saito, Kay Endo, Marleen Wallingford, Setsy Larouche, Mike Irinaga, June Schumann, Rick and Rob Shiraiishi, Michiko Kornhauser, Pat Hiromura Gilman and Roger Iwasaki.
